Soccer

40 4 4

Chapter 1 by Soccer_5

It was my life long dream, ever sense could walk I have had a soccer ball at my feet. I grew up playing everyday, shooting on my older brothers Edison, David, and Xavier. My parents adored soccer also, you can tell by our names I was named after Hope Solo. David was named after David Beckham. Edison was named after Pelé, and Xavier was named after Xavier Hernández.

"Earth to Hope," said my best friend Finn awoke me from my trance.

"Oh sorry," I muttered.

"Everyone is going outside to play soccer, want to come?" Finn said.

"Yeah," I replied

We headed outside to play, I was the only girl like usual the girls soccer team was so bad that they let my join the boys team. We played with the older boys too. At first they gave my snarky comments like "your not bad for a 13 year girl" but I just ignored them. Even though I am the only girl on my team I am the best, besides no one cares when your on the field as long as you play well. They match started, in the first minute I scored a goal. I grinned, just like usually.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

The day continued as normal and I even managed to sneak in yet another two goals by the ending blow of the whistle. Three boys - a new record.

dodgy, and maybe even fat. He quickly locked eyes with me, then starting writing again, but faster. Instantly, I had the chills. Something was wrong here.

I have been often been criticized for my headstrong nature. But nothing was going to stop me that day from marching over to the man and demanding to know his business.

That inquiry changed my life.

Chapter 3 by Kim

I don't want to tell my parents that I stomped all over that fat guy and wanted to know his business. Well whatever happens happens, so I hope the coach will ask us to play in the finals.

I always wanted to play in the finals. my mom said that I well never play in the finals. But I will.
